Scott Cook

Portland, OR

Scott.Madison.Cook@gmail.com

(971) 401-4008

Front-end Developer

Front-End Developer with code to customer design system expertise. Naturally curious with a proven ability to find and drive solutions. Strong communication skills with experience working cross-functionally to develop content for technical and non-technical audiences. Passionate about efficient, reusable solutions and building for accessibility. Experience with Fortune 500 companies across e-commerce, healthcare, and event industries.

Languages & Competencies

- JavaScript, HTML, and CSS
- React, Lightning web components, Tailwind CSS, Jest and unit testing
- Testing for accessibility and Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG)
- JIRA, Git, scrum processes, Software Documentation, release cycles
- Salesforce, CVent, navigating GUI backends

Work Experience

FinancialForce | Remote — Software Engineer

May 2021 - May 2023

- Wrote readable and scalable code for SalesForce using lightning web components
- Developed, enhanced, and maintained multiple code libraries
- Redesigned internal UI site to showcase innovative components
- Proven record for timely and efficient bug remediation
- Coded with accessibility upstream as a priority

7Summits, an IBM Company | Remote — Front End Web Developer

Oct 2020 - May 2021

- Built custom Salesforce Communities.
- Demonstrated soft skills during presentations and client interactions communicating the work completed and addressing inquiries.
- Backend data fetching using Apex and SOQL

IQVIA | Seattle, WA | Remote — Senior Software Engineer

July 2018 – April 2020

- Built UI design system library using React, web components, HTML, and CSS to increase user engagement
- Decreased average user cognitive friction and improved user performance with a large-scale custom reporting application
- Managed and deployed npm packages for greater codebase access
- Wrote a monthly HTML newsletter to highlight team accomplishments
- Built prototypes using JavaScript to guide designers and enhance their understanding of the user experience

Opus Agency | Beaverton, OR — Front-End Developer

August 2017 – July 2018

- Built event registration sites to streamline and improve the attendee's user experience
- Developed autonomous reporting for clients
- Frequently recognized for writing readable documentation for non-technical staff

UpSellit Inc. | Agoura Hills, CA — Front-End Developer

August 2015 – May 2017

- Developed cart abandonment solutions on eCommerce websites
- Increased conversion by 15% with custom marketing HTML emails
- Drove organic sales by programming personalized ads
- Evangelized managing code with git, GitHub, and Slack increasing communication efficiency and code quality

Snap Inc. | Los Angeles, CA — Contractor

March 2017

- Exceeded timelines and expectations on a custom-built HTML project expedited to the release of Spectacle product

Certifications & Accolades

React Development | General Assembly (2019)

- Course fundamentals included creating components, managing props and state, linking multi-page apps together with React Router, and connecting with third-party APIs

Front-End Developer Track | Treehouse.com (2017)

- Received over 133 achievements with an emphasis on JavaScript language, libraries, and CSS frameworks Achieved more total points than 98% of all 34,000 students
- Featured as a success story on YouTube and blog